UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA	Honorable Douglas E. Arpert
v.	Crim. No. 17-62 (MLC)
CHRISTOPHER WALSH	DETENTION ORDER

This matter having been opened to the Court on application of the defendant, Christopher Walsh (Lisa Van Hoeck, Esquire, appearing) seeking to modify the conditions of supervised released imposed in the Court's order of August 2, 2016, as modified in the Court's orders of February 24, 2017 and April 11, 2017. And the United States, by William E. Fitzpatrick, Acting United States Attorney for the District of New Jersey (Molly S. Lorber, Assistant United States Attorney, appearing) opposing such application on the grounds that the requested modification would be inadequate to assure the safety of the community, and moving for an order pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(e) to detain the Defendant without bail pending sentencing in the above-entitled matter because the Defendant may pose a danger to the community; and for good cause shown:

IT IS, therefore, on this 17th day of April, 2017,

ORDERED, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(f), that the Defendant be detained, and that he be committed to the custody of the Attorney General or his authorized representative pending sentencing pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(e); and it is further

ORDERED that such detention be without prejudice to the Defendant's right to seek such a bail hearing pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(e), to be scheduled on short notice; and it is further

ORDERED, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(i), that the Defendant be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultations with counsel; and it is further ORDERED, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 3142(i), that, upon order of this or any other court of the United States of competent jurisdiction or on request of an attorney for the United States, the Defendant shall be delivered to a United States Marshal for the purpose of appearances in connection with court proceedings.
